✓ 8/31 -The Cottage Grove K9 Unit was requested by the Dane County Sheriff's Office to assist with placing spike strips for a vehicle pursuit that was about to enter the Village limits. Additionally, it was reported one subject was shooting out of the vehicle at the pursuing Deputy. The vehicle was successfully stopped with road spikes by Cottage Grove Officers. The vehicle was disabled within the village limits as a result of the spikes being deployed. A multi-agency man hunt took place utilizing officers from almost all surrounding agencies for the two suspects that fled on foot and were possibly armed. The search went throughout the night and into the early morning hours before the Cottage Grove K9 Unit received information on a male subject sighted possibly attempting a home invasion. With the assistance of numerous Wisconsin State Troopers the Cottage Grove K9 established a track on the subject from the reporting address through a wooded area. The K9 tracked the subject to another residential setting, where the K9 located the male subject laying down hiding on an elevated deck. The subject was taken into custody without incident after nearly being bitten by the K9. The second female subject was taken into custody by Chief Layber after an alert citizen reported seeing the female running in and out of back yards. See media and social media coverage for any further information on this incident.
