NOTICE TO EMPLOYERS

It may be a violation of state law to discriminate against a job applicant because of an arrest or conviction record. Generally speaking, an employer may refuse to hire an applicant on the basis of a conviction record only if the circumstances of the offense for which the applicant was convicted substantially relate to the circumstances of the particular job. For more information, see Statute 111.335 and the Department of Workforce Development's publication, Arrest and Conviction Records Under the Law.

Before you make a final decision adverse to an applicant based on the following arrest record, in addition to any other opportunity you offer the applicant to explain the following arrest record, please notify the applicant of:

1. His or her right to challenge the accuracy and completeness of any information contained in a arrest record, and
2. The process for submitting a challenge
