Cottage Grove Police K9 Monthly Report for December, 2020

✓ Calls for Service:

- 12/9 – The K9 Unit assisted the Dane County Sheriff’s Office at the BP convenience store on CTY Hy TT and CTY Hy N in the Township of Sun Prairie with the ordering out of a suspect in a stolen vehicle. Canine was deployed on lead at the scene in case the suspect attempted to flee on foot. Suspect was taken into custody without incident.
- 12/30 – The K9 Unit was utilized by the Cottage Grove Police Department for a track in the village. The track was for a male suspect from a domestic disturbance who fled on foot prior to Officer’s arriving on scene. A track was conducted due to numerous calls for service that were domestic related and that he may be armed with a knife. The track went to a local restaurant where video was scanned and employees questioned if the suspect had been there. Could not confirm due to video quality but appeared to be the suspect getting into a vehicle that pulled into the entrance of the parking lot. Numerous charges were sent to the Dane County District Attorney’s Office for review.
- 12/30 – The Sun Prairie Police Department requested the K9 Unit for a vehicle sniff on a traffic stop they conducted. The K9 Unit was disregarded while on the way and advised the occupants gave permission for a search of the vehicle.

✓ Trainings:
