Background (related experiences, skills or qualifications):

Worked in a variety of sales roles over 35-year career, managing personnel for over 20 years. This includes hiring new personnel and managing disciplinary issues including termination. Client base was public sector including state and local government so I am familiar with how government is run.

BS and MBA degrees, and have been a member of the Police Commission in two different instances for a total of three years. Was a member during the search and hire of Chief Layber.

Why you are interested in this committee(s):

Good policing is built on trust, integrity, and building strong relationships in the community. Much of that begins with hiring strong individuals who are committed to the values of the department as well as following best practices of policing. I would like to remain on the Police Commission to ensure we dutifully address any discipline issues within the department and ensure we provide the Village with a dedicated force committed to the support and safety of the community.
